Andrea Tossaint
Commercial Leasing and Asset Management

Andrea Toussaint, a Las Vegas native, began her career in the residential real estate market with ReMax in 2005 and made the move to the commercial real estate market in 2007, specializing mainly in retail & office. As an assistant to the owner and project management, she was involved in numerous phases of development including raw land to development to delivered product. Now a part of the leasing division and asset management for Commercial Property Advisors, Andrea stays on top of emerging market trends and continues to structure service solutions that will meet the changing needs of current and future clients.
