Stacy Scheer
Commercial Leasing and Asset Management

Stacy Scheer is the Commercial Leasing & Asset Manager for Commercial Property Advisors, where she heads up all tenant leasing transactions from start to finish including sales, leasing, client presentations, lease negotiations, proposals, space planning, construction management, walkthroughs, in addition to marketing, business development, and asset management. Stacy has more than 7 years meeting the focused real estate needs of businesses and commercial real estate developers in the Las Vegas and Henderson market where she personally leased over 500,000 square feet of office, retail, and industrial properties between 2005 and 2011. During Stacy's wide-ranging career, she has represented landlords as well as tenants. Her emphasis is in retail and office/medical representing landlords to procure leases that produced income and value and tenants to locate the best suited space and terms focused on their needs. Stacy holds a Nevada Real Estate License and is currently completing her Bachelor of Arts at the University of Nevada Las Vegas.
